FROM OUR PRIESTS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The story from Exodus gives us the opportunity to talk about not only the value of perseverance in prayer but also the value of community in prayer. Communal prayer and personal prayer are both extremely important in living the Christian life. When I share my testimony, I often say that until high school I was a communal Catholic but not a personal one, because I would pray daily with family and friends at home and/or at church but would rarely pray on my own. Communal prayer formed me, strengthened me, and ultimately brought me to my first personal encounter with Jesus.

Without the support of Aaron and Hur, Moses would not have been able to continually sustain his intercessory prayer, which brought victory to Israel in battle. And while communal prayer can help us to persevere (especially through men's and women's groups), the value actually goes much deeper.

Praying as a community helps us to learn how to pray. Prayer is not like a Lego set that comes with clear step-by-step instructions; rather, it is about a dynamic relationship with a person. There are a multitude of ways to pray, and communal prayer gives us the opportunity to experience different modes and styles of prayer which might help us deepen our relationship with God. While adults can always continue to grow in prayer, this is especially important for parents to keep in mind when leading family prayer, because they have a duty to teach their children how to pray and to build the foundation of the domestic church.

Praying together in community also helps us to overcome vices like pride and selfishness which can subtly creep even into our prayer life. This is especially true when we come together to pray at Mass. At Mass we are always called to pray for the whole Church and the world, going beyond the sphere of our own limited experience and existence. But also at the Mass, we do not always get to pray in the way we prefer. We don't always hear and sing the music we prefer, responses and prayers are said in unity not in our own words, and those in the pews around us may be distracting and annoying. All these things help us to put aside our own ego and emotions and put God at the center.

These are just some of the ways that communal prayer has an incredible impact on the Christian life as it is lived out individually and in community. Commitment to prayer as a Parish at Sunday Masses, as families and households, and with our brothers and sisters within our communities is an essential element of life as a missionary disciple of Jesus. It will help us to persevere in difficult times, to form hearts on fire for Jesus, to overcome vice and sin, and so much more.

Blessings, Fr. Jack

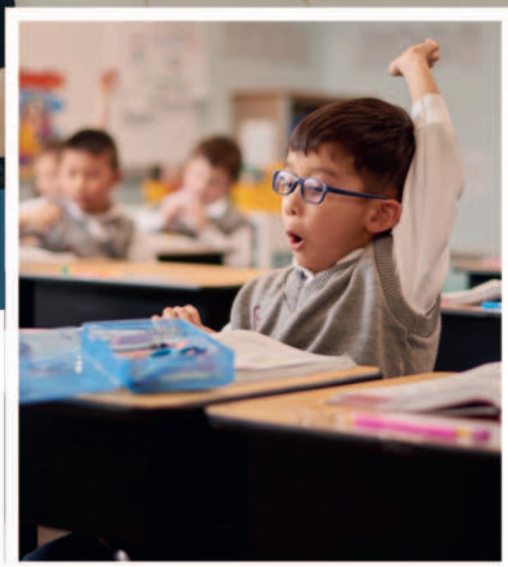
The campaign for Catholic education in the Diocese of Lansing

Frequently Asked Questions



HOW WILL PARISHES/SJB BENEFIT FROM THE CAMPAIGN? All of the funds raised in this campaign will benefit teachers, students, families and parishes through the fulfillment of the campaign's three main priorities (On Mission, Affordable and Accessible). The fourth campaign priority is for Local Initiatives. Every parish will receive 20 percent of the funds contributed by its parishioners for projects of its choosing. Once a parish target is reached in payments, the parish will receive 100 percent of any funds raised above its target.

At St. John the Baptist a portion of the funds raised will be dedicated to much-needed facility improvements. These investments will help ensure that our parish campus remains safe, functional, and welcoming for generations to come.

HOW WILL THE CAMPAIGN FUNDS BENEFIT OUR TEACHERS AND STUDENTS? Keeping quality educators is challenging in any school setting – public or private, secular or religious. In our Catholic schools, we are blessed with talented teachers who educate our children in the academic fundamentals and model Gospel values. The diocese has developed two strategies to attract, form, train, and retain excellent and faithful teachers and administrators at our Catholic schools: the "Sign, Train and Retain" program and the "Invest in the Best" program, which includes bonuses, grants and training for our teachers.

HOW WILL THIS MAKE CATHOLIC EDUCATION MORE AFFORDABLE AND ACCESSIBLE? We aim to substantially grow the financial aid endowment fund created during the Witness to Hope campaign, which will allow us to distribute more than $1 million in aid each year to assist more families' stated needs. We will also establish "New Family Grants" that will help make Catholic education a reality for children not already enrolled in our schools.

Both efforts will significantly lower the financial barrier to a Catholic education.

Meanwhile, the Accessible priority will establish the "Serving God's Children" Endowment Fund to provide grants to better serve children with special needs.

The Regional Catholic High School Enhancements fund wishes to provide up to $2 million to each of our four high schools for their individual needs.

100% PARISH PARTICIPATION STARTS WITH YOU! EVERY GIFT HELPS FORM FUTURE GENERATIONS IN FAITH.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

ON MISSION AT EMU!

This week, our campus ministry team visited Eastern Michigan University to meet new people and share the love of Jesus!

Fr. Dan took to the campus sidewalks to preach the Gospel, while the rest of our team offered to pray with students and invite them into our community.

It was a beautiful time of connection — we met incredible people and made new friends along the way. Please keep our students and everyone we encountered in your prayers, that they may come to know Jesus more deeply and experience His love in a personal way.

DISCIPLES NIGHT: "SUFFERING SUCKS"

Later in the week, students gathered for Disciples Night, where Fr. Jack gave a powerful talk titled "Suffering Sucks." He spoke about viewing suffering through a Christian lens — not as meaningless pain, but as an opportunity to draw closer to Christ.
The evening also featured a fun group game, uplifting worship, and a beautiful time of adoration.

St. John Paul II, Pope

OCTOBER 22nd, 2025

Karol Wojtyła was born in Wadowice, Poland, on May 18, 1920, the youngest of three children. His early life was marked by great loss — he lost his sister, mother, and brother by the time he was twelve, leaving him under the care of his virtuous father. Karol greatly admired him, describing him as a model of holiness. As Karol later recalled, "Day after day I was able to observe the austere way in which he lived ... his example was in a way my first seminary, a kind of domestic seminary."

In 1938, he attended Jagiellonian University in Kraków, where he studied Polish language, theater, literature, and poetry. However, Nazi forces invaded and closed the university in 1939. For four years, he was forced to work in a quarry and the Solvay chemical factory to earn a living and remain in the country. During this time, he discerned his vocation to the priesthood and entered the clandestine major seminary of Kraków. He was also a co-founder of the "Rhapsodic Theatre." He was ordained a priest on the Feast of All Saints in 1946.

Father Wojtyła was then sent to Rome, where he earned a doctorate in theology. In 1948, he returned to Poland and was appointed curate of a parish near Kraków. In 1951, he continued his studies in philosophy and theology and later became a professor of moral theology and ethics at the major seminary of Kraków.

On July 4, 1958, Pope Pius XII appointed Father Wojtyła Auxiliary Bishop of Kraków and later Archbishop in 1964. He was created Cardinal in 1967.

During the Second Vatican Council, Bishop Wojtyła played a pivotal role in drafting the Constitution Gaudium et Spes.

He also participated in five assemblies of the Synod of Bishops. On October 16, 1978, Cardinal Wojtyła was elected Pope, taking the name John Paul II.

During his pontificate, St. John Paul II made 104 international apostolic journeys, traveling the world to spread the Gospel, following in the footsteps of his predecessor, St. Peter. His principal writings include 14 encyclicals, 15 apostolic exhortations, 11 apostolic constitutions, and 45 apostolic letters. He also authored five books. He celebrated 147 beatifications, proclaiming 1,338 blesseds, and 51 canonizations, for a total of 482 saints. To draw young people closer to Christ and the Church, he established World Youth Day in 1986. No other pope has attracted such large audiences to his Wednesday general audiences — over 17.6 million pilgrims, not including special gatherings.

St. John Paul II died on April 2, 2005, the Vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday, a feast he instituted. He was canonized by Pope Francis on April 27, 2014. He is the patron saint of World Youth Day, young Catholics, families, and Poland.
